Five Mission Values

Last month we wrote on "Embracing Your Mission" and defined what the term mission means to the CLC body. This month we want to briefly share five of the values that guide how we conduct ourselves in the mission.

1. We value the work of local, regional and global missions equally.

2. We value a relational priority within the mission.

3. We value working with those who share a common Kingdom vision.

4. We value strategic life exchange between those conducting and those sponsoring the mission.

5. We value mutual accountability.

Over the next several months we will take time to explain each of these individual values and what they mean to our mission experience.

CLC Returns to China

"I wanted my 50th birthday to be a prophetic declaration of the second chapter of my life not just a celebration of the first," said Senior Pastor, David Crone when asked why he first traveled to China on his 50th birthday. On that trip Dave fell in love with those who sacrifice so much for the gospel in China. Since that first call, CLC has taken three additional trips to China to encourage and train leaders of the house church movement, transport bibles and training materials, and to refresh the international staff based in Hong Kong.

March 18th will mark CLC's fifth mission to China. Steve and Lorraine Box will be teaching the final component of a one-year training course for pastors. The team will have the honor of attending the graduation ceremony, as well as offering prayer ministry and transporting bibles. RCMI has reported that in some parts of China there is only one bible for every four hundred believers.

A Breakthrough With Sounds of the Nations in India

Last year CLC hosted an International Worship and Recording School for nine students from India. The purpose of this school was to promote writing and recording authentic, ethnic expressions of worship in their own sound and language. Last month Dan McCollam had the privilege of seeing some of the fruit from the IWAR school. When our IWAR students performed their original ethnic songs for the thousands of delegates in attendance the crowd went wild with enthusiastic expressions of praise. Several of the students are moving towards full-time ministry of training others in authentic, ethnic worship. One student was quoted as saying, "I believe a powerful movement has begun which will sweep our nation with the sound of revival." In addition to the blessing of seeing our students in action, nearly one hundred persons came to Christ and many were baptized in the Holy Spirit. For more information on Sounds of the Nations worship conferences or the IWAR training events see www.worshipmissions.com or speak with Dan McCollam.

A New Church in Fiji

In the last several months, over 800 Fijians have found Christ in the previously un-evangelized interior. Teams from CLC will be traveling to Fiji in August to help plant a church in this region where the first missionaries were martyred more than one hundred years ago. Pastor Dave and Paul Barber will be leading the trip. The cost is approximately $1800 per person. Contact the church office if you are interested in participating.

Massive Healing Crusades in Brazil

Keep Bill and Carol Dew in prayer throughout the latter part of March and all of April as they train prayer team members in Brazil in preparation for the massive healing crusades with speaker Randy Clark. Bill and Carol, who are based out of CLC, have spent several years with Randy's teams in Brazil where the blind see, the deaf hear, and devils are cast out. The Dews will be training leaders and participating in crusades throughout March and into April. For more information visit their website at www.dewnamis.com.

Walking Where Wigglesworth Walked

March 1st – 15th several members from CLC will be joining with the Lake Berryessa Church and Family Christian Center of Dixon to walk where Smith Wigglesworth walked in Bradford, England. Wigglesworth was the famous healing evangelist that often quoted the phrase "Only Believe," as he healed the sick, cast out devils and raised fourteen people from the dead. The team will be preaching in the church and on the streets, praying for the sick and helping with the remodel of the Church of the Harvest building. Keep this team in prayer as they are not just walking in the place that Wigglesworth walked and lived but also in the same anointing as team members pray for divine miracles of healing and salvation for souls on the streets.

Mission Testimonies

Contact groups are reaching out to those in our own community during the month of March and April. Keep our contact group leaders in prayer!
Vacaville, California

"Thousands received medical help and prayer from the CLC medical team that went to Calcutta. The Sunday after the medical camp church attendance was double!"
-Anjan, Calcutta

"Our after school children's program is full and we are getting ready to start another."
-Solomon & Star, Romania

"Construction on one new church in the interior has already begun thanks to donations from CLC and Ivan Tait's ministry."
